Horse of a Different Color: Reminiscences of a Kansas Drover Ralph Moody

Just after World War I, and following a summer with a rag-tag harvesting crew and a season as a grain hauler in Western Kansas, Ralph Moody decides to devote his time, small savings and considerable enthusiasm to the livestock business- a fascinating, often grueling, but more often rewarding occupation. This is the story not only of Mr. Moody's experiences as a Kansas livestock dealer, but of a people who had the courage and fortitude to wrest a livelihood from that land of killing droughts, searing heat and violent storms.
