Welcome to Grayhurst Academy, a private school filled with secrets, intrigue, and more fiery personalities than one school can handle!

Being the new student, at a new school, is always difficult. For Aurora, who has been blind since birth, it is even more of a challenge. Unwanted there by Draco, the most popular boy at school and hated by the female who wants him for her own, she finds herself questioning the wisdom of attending Grayhurst Academy. That is until she finds herself falling for Draco.

Draco didn't want Aurora attending his school, residing in his father's guesthouse, or even living in the same state as he did. It wasn't personal, he just wasn't ready to settle down with the one female fate had designed for him. From the moment they first touch, though, he finds himself falling for the green-eyed temptress that was always meant to be his. Problem is he has a big secret, one that could drive her away now that he finally realizes just how much she means to him.

Can two young lovers make it in a world where fantasy clashes with reality? Will Aurora take her place by Draco's side as his love, his life, his Gem?
