The Guide to Life: An inspiration from the Bible is inspired by God and Holy Spirit led. In one of my journal sessions with Jesus, He told me to write a guide to life that shows Christians how to live according to the Bible. He then told me all the parts to go into the book and how to write it. The book gives all the commandments we are supposed to follow and debunks the once saved always saved doctrine and which laws we have to obey in the Old Testament. It also tells us what Jesus told us to do in the Great Commission- to spread the gospel, make disciples, heal, cast out demons, and raise the dead. It gives biblical reasoning behind believers being able to do the same things Jesus did. It explains what grace is, why we need it, and how it saves us. When we became born again, we became a new creation. Our new creation does not have to follow God's commands because we are righteous. The problem is that we live in the flesh and don't know how to walk in our new creation. We have to follow God's commandments when we live in the flesh because we can't help but sin. For this reason, I put a new spin on following God's commandments. We should be looking at God's commandments as a symptom of a larger problem, much like a cough or a runny nose is a symptom of a cold. If we are angry or jealous, it may be a symptom of being hurt by someone in our life. In order to effectively remove these symptoms, we need to get to the root cause and reconcile with the person that hurt you.
