Vasile Velicescu is finally finding peace after the death of his long time lover. When he interviews a young woman who looks remarkably like his Nina, Vasile is angry, yet elated to have found her once again. As a man used to always having the upper hand, he vows to uncover Nina's reasons for leaving. If this woman is Nina, he's not sure how he'll punish her, he only knows that she will not escape him a second time. Nina Caruthers has lived through a lot of pain. Still dealing with the effects of a catastrophic accident, she makes the most of the time she has left. Nina knew she shouldn't have taken the job at Velicescu Finance. Her smooth and sexy boss, Vasile Velicescu, reminds her so much of the man she'd called her Midnight Lover. She hasn't seen him since her accident. She'd kept a diary about her old lover - if only she remembered what her notations meant.
