Love Notes S. M. Jaehn

LOVE NOTES will delight both young children and their parents, especially those who are always looking for creative ways to say how much they love each other. This book was inspired by THE WAY MEAT LOVES SALT by Nina Jaffe, in which a Jewish girl is banished from her home because she told her father she loved him "the way meat loves salt." Eventually this story leads to reconciliation with the father. He finally understands the depth of her love and how meat is tasteless without salt. After reading that tale, my children and I began creatively sharing the different ways we love each other. This book is a collection of some of our LOVE NOTES. I hope this simple tradition brings other families as much joy as it brings ours.

Christina Bales:

As a scholar exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library in order to make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's internal or real their passion. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to go to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Love Notes can make you feel more interested to read.
