Mackinac Bridge Jesus is written for anyone, anywhere who s struggled with addiction, sexual orientation, mental health, nutty families, finding God, losing jobs, getting old, getting laid and generally living life on life s terms. It speaks to the dysfunctional members of society those of us known as the vast majority.

Mackinac Bridge Jesus is a collection of twisted, tragic, comedic and tender biographical essays about healing, forgiveness, finding the perfect bra and embalming your relatives. Each story speaks to the freedom that comes when we stop taking ourselves so damn seriously. Mackinac Bridge Jesus is part tent revival, part 12-step meeting and part open-mic night at the Improv. If you like Augusten Burroughs, Anne Lamott, Emmet Fox or perhaps a grittier, gayer Erma Bombeck, Mackinaw Bridge Jesus is for you.
