Excerpt from Automobile Painting and Carriage and Wagon Painting

The garage owner whose winter income depend largely on rentals and overhauling jobs will find the painting of cars generally repaired to be a profitable addition to his earnings. He has the room usually, and needs but to study the work to be able to handle it. Rebuilt cars which he may be holding for sale offer an excellent opportunity to increase his profit. A few coats of paint and varnish have sold more cars than much talking ever did. Painting really increases the value 'of an automobile as well as to make it sell more easily.
