Special price for this Holiday Season: Price was $15.95 . . . Now 1/2 off, just $8.95! What child hasn't wondered how the presents get under the Christmas tree if there is no chimney for Santa? Well, little Jackie is no different, and he's determined to find out! While waiting under the Christmas tree on Christmas Eve, he's surprised by a bright rainbow of light that explodes through the keyhole of his front door. Two cute and ambitious elves, Katie and Ben, grow out of the light and commence putting presents under the tree. Jackie befriends them, and learns that with the help of their magic crystal, they can get into houses that Santa cannot..."When there is no chimney, we elves save the day!"...and Santa is up on the roof waiting for his elves to return from doing their job. When they get ready to leave, Katie pulls out the magic crystal, and she and Ben say the magic words..."And together they said three times in a hush, Merry Christmas to all, and to all peace and love." Magic ensues, as Jackie watches and learns the whole secret about the elves, Santa Clause and Christmas without a chimney. This heart-warming tale will enchant young and old alike with its sincere message, brilliant illustrations and surprising ending. And it will finally answer your youngsters' questions about how the presents are delivered when there is no chimney!
