Problems Without Figures

About the book This book promotes problem solving through problem solving theory, providing a practical system for teaching and learning mathematics. The idea for this book stems from a belief that when problem solvers are active agents, central to the learning process and accept a reasonable share of the work to solve problems, their ownership of understanding and responsibility is advanced.

Joseph Spadano received a Bachelor of Science degree from Fitchburg State University and a Master's Degree and Doctorate from the University of Massachusetts Lowell.
