Master electrician, Peyton Jenkins, is tired of being the responsible Jenkins' girl. She's ready to hand over the reins of the family business for a chance to live life and find love. However, fear of getting hurt again keeps her from letting down her guard. That is until her world intersects with bad-boy, Michael Cutter. Their sparks ignite a passion that can't be denied. Private investigator, Michael Cutter, has no intention of falling for another pretty face, not even someone as beautiful as Peyton. But her smokin' hot body and sass can't be ignored. She desires love and commitment, yet the sins of his father continue to haunt Michael, deterring him from pursuing any type of relationship other than a casual fling. Will their pasts keep them from taking a chance on love? And will love be enough to heal old wounds?
