A Guide to Parenting in Islam: Addressing Adolescence Muhammad Abdul Bari

Addressing Adolescence is a parent-to-parent handbook outlining how to tackle the challenges of parenting adolescents within an Islamic ethos in a pluralist society. It covers: - the unique nature of an adolescent and how this differs from younger children; - possible problems that young people today may face in school and within their social life and how best to tackle these; matters to consider when choosing a secondary school; - creating the most nurturing home environment in which to bring up young people; - preparing them for the adult world of responsibility.
