About this Poems Collection Most of the poems included in this collection are short lyrics written on a plethora of subjects. Though personal and seemingly disparate, they could be etched into the existence of any reader as they juggle with a multitude of human sensations and attitudes towards both the beauty of Creation and horror of the destruction inflicted upon it by man. Simplicity of language and an elated sense of freedom transpire from the collection of poems which have no intention to offer more than a pleasant musing moment.
