Crispin Saville is the entitled second son of the king of Meradin. The Prince of Whispers, as he'd been dubbed by the ladies of court, seeks only to satisfy his own appetites and desires. After his brother's passing, Crispin believes himself to be next in line for the throne, until his father issues an ultimatum...forego his hedonistic ways or be banished from Meradin forever. Thrust into a journey of self-discovery at the command of the king, Crispin finds himself without title or coin to sustain him as he wanders the kingdom. When an outlaw, the notorious Lady of the Forest, comes to his aid, he must hide his true identity. Crispin discovers hiding his true nature difficult as the fire haired lass bewitches him with her sharp wit and even sharper blade. Murder and tales of treason fill the halls of Culver. Crispin and Ruby must battle their desire and learn to trust one another, or risk losing the nation they both love to war and chaos.
