First Edition, 1970. Inscribed By The Author on ffep. Green cloth with yellow lettering to spine. "This book adds a chapter to the growing literature on the problems of agrarian reform. It confirms the acuteness of the dilemma that faces all reformers -- that reforms may open a Pandora's box that will bring ruin to a system that introduces them. Consequently this study is concerned with the relationship between evolutionary and revolutionary action, as well as between reform and reaction." from the jacket flap.
