Fowl Gestures - Cutting Edge Adventures in Animal Activism Bob Chorush

Getting arrested for dumping a load of manure... ..while wearing an elephant costume, preventing ducks from being shot by starting a hunting club and deterring people from attending the Shrine circus by reminding them of the pedophilic exploits of Spanky the Clown... These were just a few of the campaigns that Bob Chorush stickhandled during his animal activist exploits. Originally a journalist, working at one time for Rolling Stone Magazine, Bob was always an activist. He ended up in Canada when he became a conscientious objector to the Vietnam War. He was quick witted and had brilliant, hilarious and effective ideas for animal rights campaigns. These are Bob's stories of his adventures and exploits in his own words. No matter what your experience was when meeting Bob, you never forgot him. Bob's friends will never forget his kindness, deft language and multiple senses of humour. His friends who miss him dearly want to share his stories with you.
