A Systematic Guide to the Case Law of the European Court of Human Rights, 1960-1994 (2 Volume Set) (Vol.1)

This volume presents a compilation of the relevant passages of all the European Court of Human Rights' judgements up to 1994, arranged according to the Articles of the Convention and its Protocols. Some articles are further subdivided according to element (such as Articles 5, 6, 8, and 10). Edited by a member of the legal staff of the Court Registry, it allows practical and comprehensive access to the court's case law, and aims to enable users to find all the rulings of the Court which may be relevant to a given problem.

John Dame:

As a scholar exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library or make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just small students that has reading's spirit or real their leisure activity. They just do what the professor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring along with can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important for you. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country.
