Then she meets her man's ex, and discovers his ex suffers from a mental illness. Will Chanelle find a way to keep her man without crossing the line and driving his ex over the edge? Twyla Logan-Faust is used to being a kept woman. But when her boyfriend is sentenced to life without parole and her accountant takes off with her money, her world falls apart. She turns to her ex-husband, Rick, hoping to resume her position as his wife. Rick is the only man who knows about her bipolar condition and he's the only one she can trust. Even when she discovers he's moved on, she remains confident that no other woman can replace her. With a little coaxing, she's positive she'll be Mrs. Twyla Faust again. Rick Faust is caught in the middle. His love for Chanelle is undeniable, but he was married to Twyla for years. He knows Twyla's condition is serious and he's worried about what she might do if he rejects her.
