Saint Brigid the Fearless (Ireland's Best Known Stories In A Nutshell) (Volume 15) Ann Carroll

Born into slavery more than 1500 years ago, Brigid stood against powerful rulers to become an outstanding leader of men and women. Her beauty was such that she could have married into wealth and position but she chose to follow her own path against the wishes of those who tried to control her. Brigid was fearless and by following her destiny achieved greatness.
