Can he be the home she never had? Home is where the heart is. So what if you've never had a home? If you're Jasalie Gordon, you go on a business trip, fall in love with the number one quarterback in football, and then try to take your heart back. The catch is, you can't. Jasalie lost faith in love a long time ago. Beautiful but intensely private, she makes sure to keep everyone a football field away. When her L.A. boss sends her to the Arizona desert, she meets perfectly gorgeous star quarterback Dylan Gray, and even she can't deny their immediate nuclear attraction. But, it's the way Dylan looks at her—like Jasalie can actually trust him—that melts her core and downright terrifies her. Determined to protect her tender heart, Jasalie convinces Dylan to make a pact that their hot, steamy affair will end when they leave the desert. Dylan's used to getting what he wants. And he wants Jasalie to count on him for more than just a few days of mind-blowing sex. So the faster she runs, the more determined he becomes to prove her wrong about love and welcome her home again.
