They don't call him Hard Guy for nothin'! Into the rough and tumble oil fields of Texas and the American southwest of the 1930s comes Dallas Duane, troubleshooter, freelance private dick and undercover investigator for the oil companies. "Hard and fast" is his motto! Watch as he works his way in and out of trouble—both with the wildcatters and wild women—knuckling a path through a series of bank robberies and payroll heists, murder and corrupt officials, crooked gambling and haunted graveyards. Here, for the first time are assembled the complete adventures of "Hard Guy" Dallas Duane, two-fisted troubleshooter! The appendix includes a nonfiction article about the wildcat oil booms of the Texas region that Olsen covered as a newspaper reporter. With an introduction by James Reasoner.
