Priced Royalty-FREE on Amazon.com and foreign channels. Many people talk about the mark of the beast (Revelation 14, Verses 9-11) and agree that the mark is in the hand or forehead – the Bible plainly tells us that – but there is considerable debate over what the mark is because most of those same people speculate wildly rather than just allow the Bible to speak for itself. Why would God give us this dire warning about taking the mark and then not tell us what it is??? This book is written with the intention of setting the record straight. He does tell us. He wants us to know. But do we want to know? In a trial, a verdict is rendered when the evidence is beyond reasonable doubt. The Biblical/historical evidence presented in this book is beyond any doubt. What will you do with the evidence?
