A band of orphaned girls are trapped in a laboratory on the coast of China ...

... subject to experimental processes designed to alter their DNA for the unknown purposes of a shadowy organization ...

... until one of the girls, with the help of her newly intelligent learning device and a compassionate, amnesia-burdened guard, devises a way to escape with her four friends.

She knows the process has created the change the researchers are hoping for in her and, fearing for her freedom, she and her crew make their way across the Pacific to the west coast of North America, searching for a place they can live out their lives in peace.

Of course, the secrecy society will continue to pursue its lost property.

The girl and her friends think they are protecting a gift.
