After the Sunset: A photographic journey of the Soul's landscape Sharka Waite

After the Sunset is a photographic journey of a seeker's Soul, celebrating and exploring life's many roads in search of deeper meaning. Although not all roads may lead to success and joy initially, often we realize that the darker moments of loss and sorrow give us an opportunity to discover our true inner attributes such as courage and strength. As Confucius suggested: "Our greatest glory is not in never falling, but in rising every time we fall." This collection of insightful poems offers spiritual guidance to those longing for a touch of nature and poetic expression of an emotional musing by exploring the themes of nature, love, life, death, and the inner journey of growth. May you be inspired by the heartfelt poetry and prose to embark on a new journey of self-discovery through the many winding roads contained in the breathtaking photographs of the natural world.
