Kids' Kew: A Children's Guide: Revised Edition Miranda MacQuitty

There's just so much to do at Kew—especially for the twelve-and-under set. There are treehouses to climb, wild animals to spot, and colorful plants to discover. An action-packed visit needs the ultimate guide, and Kids' Kew is perfect for both kids and the adults joining in the fun.

This interactive book overflows with bright illustrations and activities—from wildlife watches to dinosaur trivia and from silly jokes to a sticker book—that will delight any child. An easy-to-use fold-out map helps with navigation and marks the kid-friendly stops. And once the trip is over, the many quizzes, connect-the-dots, crosswords, and other activities help children savor the trip home. Throughout Kids' Kew, adventurers will find out how they can be plant superheroes, as they learn why conservation is important and what they can do to help save the world.

With information on visiting the Gardens year-round, this official guide will make planning easy and delight kids looking for their own special souvenir.
