It seemed that the Earth and the Vampire World had been cut off from each other for eternity - humanity was now safe from the deprivations of the Wampyr. But this assumption has led to complacency, and while the monsters seem to have been vanquished, Harry Keogh - the World's saviour - is also dead. Their deadly recruits soon run into the hundreds, and E-Branch soon seem to be chasing a lost cause - chasing fire after fire but never managing to strike at the heart of the evil. It quickly becomes apparent that the fate of this new war is in the hands of one raw and broken man who has been 'chosen' to be the new NECROSCOPE. But he has his own agenda of revenge...
