Casino Gambling Guide for Little Old Ladies Pat Gaudette

The enjoyment of gambling doesn't go away with age, it may even intensify. Gamblers don't "age out" into other pastimes. Seniors have more free time, perhaps more money they're willing to spend on trivial pursuits, fewer family obligations, and less interest in scuba diving or rock climbing now that their bodies are feeling the effects of aging. Seniors play bingo at church, at the VFW, at their community hall. They buy lottery tickets. They go to sweepstakes internet cafes. Visiting a casino can be an entertaining day out when it's done right. Hopefully this book will help you or your favorite little old lady to "do it right."
