Recueil des Cours/Collected Courses

The Academy is an institution for the study and teaching of public and private international law and related subjects. Its purpose is to encourage a thorough and impartial examination of the problems arising from international relations in the field of law. The courses deal with the theoretical and practical aspects of the subject, including legislation and case law. All courses at the Academy are, in principle, published in the language in which they were delivered in the Collected Courses of the Hague Academy of International Law. This volume contains: Le cinquantieme anniversaire de la Cour internationale de Justice, communication de S. Exc. M. BEDJAOUI, president de la Cour internationale de Justice, La Haye Droit international et souverainete des Etats. Cours general de droit international public, par J.-A. CARRILLO-SALCEDO, professeur a l'Universite de Seville, Facultative Choice of Law: The Procedural Status of Choice-of-Law Rules and Foreign Law by Th.M. DE BOER, Professor at the University of Amsterdam."
