The Church as Movement: Starting and Sustaining Missional-Incarnational Communities JR Woodward, Dan White Jr.

Starting new missional-incarnational communities is challenging enough. Doing so in a way that reflects the viral movement of the early New Testament church is even more difficult. JR Woodward (author of Creating a Missional Culture) and Dan White Jr. (author of Subterranean) have trained church planters all over North America to create movemental churches that are rooted in the neighborhood. In this book you will discover the eight competencies necessary to launch communities grounded in mission that multiply:

- Movement Intelligence
- Polycentric Leadership
- Being Disciples
- Making Disciples
- Missional Theology
- Ecclesial Architecture
- Community Formation
- Incarnational Practices

The book features an interactive format with tools, exercises and questions for reflection, learning and growth and is ideal for church planting teams or discipleship groups to use together.

It's not enough to understand why the church needs more missional and incarnational congregations. The Church as Movement will also show you how to make disciples that make disciples. This is the engine that drives the church as movement, so that everyday Christians can be present in the world to join God's mission in the way of Jesus.
