...Venezuela is really disposed to make corresponding concessions on her pari. Her Majesty's Government will therefore be glad to receive, and will undertake to consider in the most friendly spirit, any proposal that the Venezuelan Government may think fit to make for the establishment of a boundary satisfactory to both nations. As regards the question to which your second letter relates, M. le Ministre, I have the honour to state that, in view of the fact that the Island of Pntos has been held by Great Britain as a dependency of the Colony of Trinidad since 1797, and that the British title to it was not questioned by Venezuela until 1859, Her Majesty's Government consider that, apart from all other grounds, so long a term of undisputed possession confers upon Great Britain an indefeasible title to the island. No. 575. Letter from Jose M. te Rojas, minister of Venezuela in Great Britain, to the Marquess of Salisbury, April 12, 1880. Reprinted from Blue Book No. 1. p. 296 I have given my government information of the note which your Excellency did me the honour of addressing to me on the 10th January last relating principally to the limits between Venezuelan and British Guiana, No. 575. and I have just received instructions for the arrangement of this longstanding affair by abandoning the ground of strict right which, as your Excellency anticipates in the aforesaid note, would make the discussion interminable, and concurring with Her Britannic Majesty's Government in the adoption for both countries of a frontier mutually convenient and reconciling in the best possible manner their respective interests, each party having to make concessions to the other for the purpose of attaining such an important result. I am therefore fully authorized, my Lord, to sign with ...
