On Top of a Backpack: Experiences of a Mother and Son in Indonesia Angeline M.A. Schoor

Angeline Schoor traveled with her son through Indonesia. Now she shares her perceptions with the reader, their moments of wonder, bewilderment, fatigue but most of all, the fun. Angeline Schoor, born in Haarlem, lives with her son and two rats on one of the islands of South Holland. In everyday life, she is the head of a training center within the municipality of Rotterdam. She is also a singer/songwriter and occasionally plays her harp or she is accompanied by her son with the guitar. In the time that remains, she travels as much as possible.
