The full potential of a church will not be experienced until there is a clear Biblical understanding of spiritual gifts. This book encourages each and every believer to understand that God wants to use them to build the body of Christ. We do not have to rely on our own talents and abilities because we cannot build anything of spiritual value in our own strength. Spiritual gifts equip us to function as members of the body of Christ. The Holy Spirit gives the gifts to us for His clearly defined purposes. They are to be used to serve the body of Christ. The Holy Spirit imparts His gifts to the church so that we can minister in His power and ability. These gifts are the most fundamental way in which ministry occurs within the present day church.
